

OPENS 4 MAY at 8pm

Then plays until 25 May

Friday & Saturday at 8pm, Sunday at 6pm

Hugh Whitmore's classic play is a powerfully moving, fictional account of the events leading up to the arrest of Peter and Helen Kroger, two Americans living in a London suburb, who were convicted of spying for the Russians and sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment.

How well do you know your neighbours?

Based on true events

Read Eric Scott's review here

Playing at the Chelmer Community Centre, Cnr. Queenscroft & Halsbury Streets, Chelmer

Bookings can be made on-line.

All inquiries to 0435 591 720